Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Re: International Day Against Homophobia

The Public Service Alliance of Canada stands in solidarity with lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender communities to mark the International Day Against Homophobia, on May 17th.

The PSAC has a history of fighting discrimination to ensure that members of the LGBT communities are treated with dignity, justice and respect. This fight is often led by the LGBT activists who struggle courageously through their unions and community groups to raise awareness and fight for justice for LGBT issues everywhere.

Please visit the International Day Against Homophobia website at www.homophobiaday.org, to find out about the 2010 Campaign under the theme "Speaking about Silence - Homophobia in the Sports World". I also encourage you to arrange awareness-raising activities to promote the day within your Locals.

We stand proudly in solidarity with our Sisters and Brothers and hope that one day we can live in a world where homophobia does not exist.

In Solidarity,

Robyn Benson
